

PRESS RELEASE

AHEPA Toronto Family spends a day in the sun at the Annual Picnic

TORONTO, ON – The AHEPA Toronto family gathered on Saturday, August, 30, 2014 at the Bruce Mills Conservation Area: Beech Tree in Stouffville for the annual family picnic. The fun-filled day welcomed members with their families and friends to enjoy sports pentathlon, swimming, tavli tournaments, raffles, and a barbeque.

The AHEPA family picnic had a successful turnout of over 85 participants, which included the AHEPA Toronto President, Constantine Politis, the AHEPA Toronto Vice-President, Byron Yankou, the AHEPA Toronto Secretary, Anastasios Moussas, the former Daughters of Penelope Canadian President, Aspa Kostopoulos, the DOP Toronto Secretary, Angela Sarantakos, the Sons of Pericles President, Tasos Kavalas, the SOP Vice-President, Timothy Noitsis, the MOA President Katherine Noitsis, and the AHEPA youth basketball teams.

Both the SOP President, Tasos Kavalas, and the SOP Vice-President, Timothy Noitsis, were key organizers on the picnic committee, as their hard work and efforts delivered a day filled with laughter and fun for all.

The highlight of the picnic was the delicious barbeque, where grill master Mr. Larry Christidis spent hours cooking-up hot dogs, burgers, and souvlakia! Sponsors for the event were La Boucherie Meat Market and Costa and Toula Maniates for the mouth-watering souvlakia, and Paul Hasoulas.

A big thank you to everyone who helped organized the successful event. The AHEPA family hopes to continue the momentum into the upcoming year with its other family events, and once again next summer.
